

A Measure of What Matters Most

As we reflect on 2025, here's how GCI's year measured up.

10 employees were recognized by peers for exceptional demonstration of GCI's core values.

16 new employees hired.

119 safety sessions including tailgate talks, jobsite strategy sessions, and in-depth seasonal training.

350 days without a reportable safety incident.

255 employee volunteer hours.

4 company-wide gatherings to celebrate and inform.

36 charitable organizations and activities supported through the GCI/Ann Longo Memorial Fund.

100% of client relationships retained.

17 different types of staff training and continuing education completed.

6 summer interns from 5 colleges and universities.

11 new certifications, designations, and degrees earned by GCI staff.

4 employee retirements with a combined 127 years of service to GCI.

We wish you and yours happiness beyond measure, good health, prosperity, and a blessed New Year!
